

Right To Information Disclosure Log

Amendments to the Disclosure Log

Under section 78B of the Act, information must be deleted from any document or information included in a disclosure log under section 78(2), including an individual's name, if publication:

- is prevented by law
- would be defamatory
- would unreasonably invade a person's privacy
- is confidential communication by a person other than the agency
- is protected under contract
- would cause substantial harm to an entity.

In approving changes to the disclosure log, the authorising officer certifies these requirements have been met.
